

Troopers Seek Publics' Assistance in Locating Bank Robbery Suspect

Greg RASPBERRY

Wilmington (19805) – Delaware State Police and the Wilmington Police Department are asking for the public's assistance in locating Greg Raspberry, 56, of Wilmington, who is wanted for committing three bank robberies over the last three days.

On Wednesday, April 4, 2018, at approximately 1:30 p.m.,

Troopers responded to the PNC Bank, located at 2203 Kirkwood Highway, Wilmington, in reference to a robbery. The investigation determined that a black male suspect approached a 69 year old employee as she stood behind the counter, and demanded money from the cash drawer. The victim complied with the demand, and turned over an undisclosed amount of money to the suspect, who then fled in an unknown direction. No weapon was displayed nor implied, and there were no injuries as a result of the incident.

Through further investigation, detectives were able to determine that the suspect matched the description of Raspberry, who is wanted for two bank robberies currently being investigated by the Wilmington Police Department, both of which took place on Monday, April 2, 2018.

Raspberry is described as black male, 5'9", 185 lbs., and was last seen wearing a dark knit hat and dark colored jacket.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Raspberry is asked to contact Detective T. Dukes of the Troop 2 Robbery Unit at 302-365-8412 or by calling 911.
